Each night Little Frog looks up to the sky and dreams of reaching a star. The other animals in the pond think she's crazy. It's impossible, they tell her. But suddenly and unexpectedly, bright spheres appear at the bottom of the pond and emerge and go up towards the sky. At first Little Frog is afraid but she soon realises that her moment has come. She jumps and catches hold of a sphere and begins a journey that will take her to places never before explored by an amphibian. Along the way she will confront her fears and insecurities, discovering incredible feelings and individuals on her journey during which she will learn, enjoy and feel things she never thought she would experience. A journey during which the protagonist will discover, step by step, that everything is possible if you have a strong belief in your goal. "A fable about personal development, success and the importance of dreaming."
