Alberto has failed five subjects and doesn't know how to tell his parents. They haven't been getting along well lately, and often have arguments. On his way home, Alberto discovers a mysterious shop called Nowhere that he's never seen before. Intrigued, he goes inside and finds a strange, elegant, elderly man, Mr. Knight, whose cold eyes are very disturbing. Knight explains that he can make Alberto's dreams come true on condition that he gives him his lifespan. Alberto accepts: how can he refuse to exchange his poor grades for As and make his parents love one another again! The deal is agreed, his wishes come true, but time begins to run backwards and he gradually disappears. How can he stop the infernal clock Knight has set going?
