Is it possible for a man secretly to hire sex professionals so as to revive his desire for his wife? Is it not paradoxical for a husband to go to a third party to reestablish his sexual life with his partner? Is jealousy love or wounded vanity? What boundaries are we prepared to cross for the sake of love? What revelations are we prepared to hear about the person we love? Enric knows he is playing with fire and has opened a door he may never be able to close. But the temptation to discover Anna's secrets is too powerful. What Enric seems not to know is that, in love, happiness and truth are not always compatible.
